

ABDULAHI CONSULTING ROSTER PROFILES

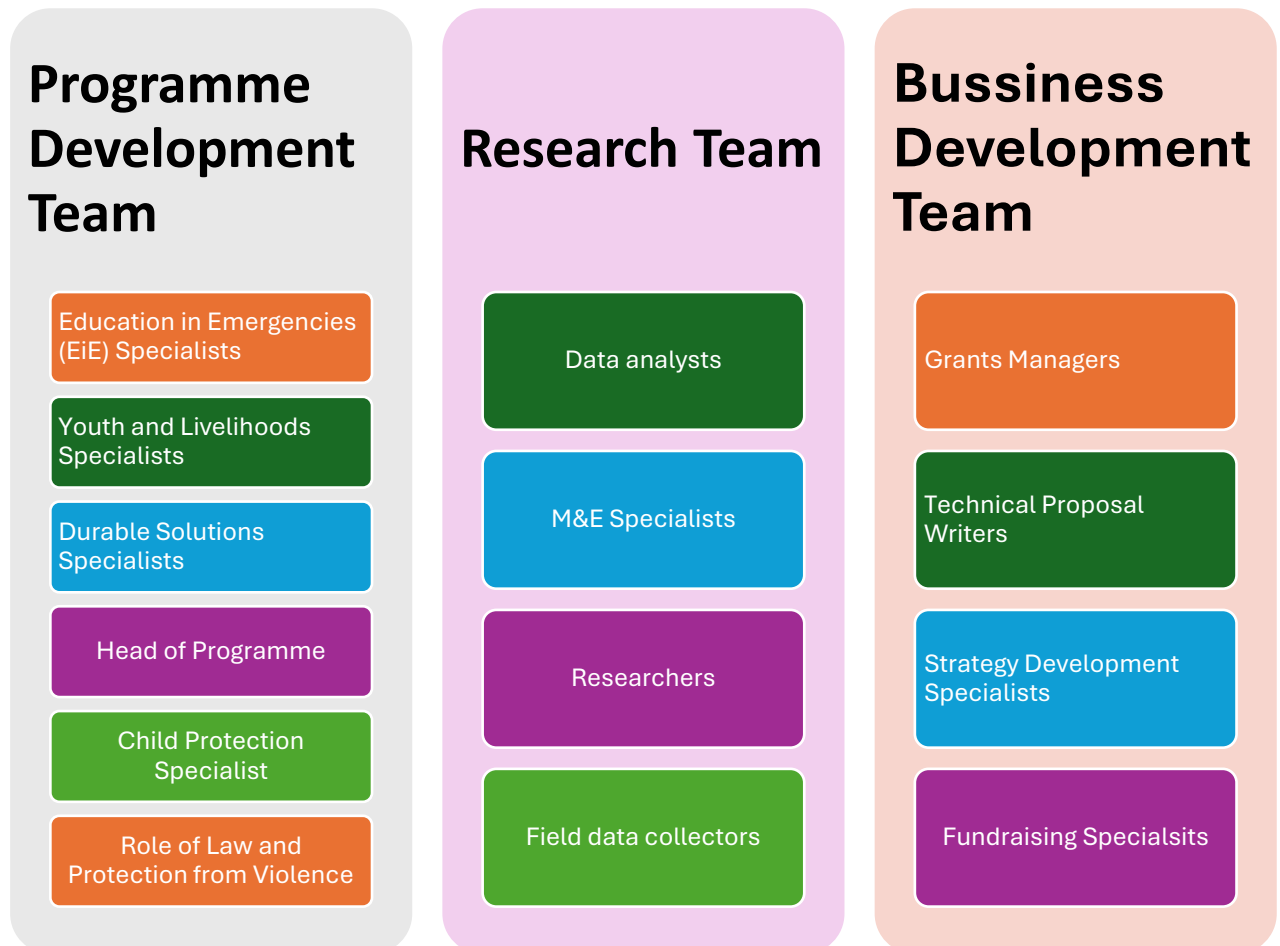

Figure 1: Abdulahi Consulting current Roster profiles

About The Roster

Abdulahi Consulting roster members are professionals with extensive humanitarian and development experience. They support our operations globally and are available on short notice for deployment based on client needs. The consultants are experts in their own field with specific core competencies as outlined above.

The include three strands.

Strand 1 is the programme Development team: these are thematic specialists they include key profiles of Education in Emergencies (EiE) Specialists, Child protection Specialists, Youths and Livelihoods Specialists, Durable solutions specialists.

Strand 2 is the Research Team: The research team specialises in Monitoring and Evaluation, needs assessment, tool development and social research and field-based data collection. They support task that require field data collection such as third-party monitoring (TPM), baseline surveys and endline surveys and social research work that involves both qualitative and quantitative data collection, analysis and reporting Strand 3 is the Business Development Team: The business development team profiles include grant managers, technical proposal writers, fundraising and strategy development specialist. Their role is the technical development of projects including proposal writing, concept notes development and working with clients offering advice on donor compliance, fundraising and resource mobilization. They also align the strategy of LNGOs with their desired funding outcomes, ensuring fit for purpose strategy work with clients.

Abdulahi Consulting is an agile humanitarian and development consultancy that offers technical and operational support to clients worldwide. based out of Dublin, Ireland we are focused on improving the lives of the displaced by offering a consultancy service to a wide range of humanitarian and development actors working in emergencies, early recovery and or development contexts.

Our 5 core thematic areas inform our consultancy practice and form the basis of our intervention globally

We are always looking for exceptional talent to join our roster. You are always welcome to join, if you are interested and available share your CV with us via our email:

info@abduhiconsulting.com